Tenors Matthew Polenzani and Jonathan Tetelman co-star as the callous American naval officer Pinkerton, whose betrayal destroys her. Mezzo-sopranos Elizabeth DeShong and Eve Gigliotti share the role of the steadfast maid Suzuki, and baritone Davide Luciano and Lucas Meachem are the American consul Sharpless. Acclaimed maestro Xian Zhang makes her Met debut conducting Anthony Minghella's vivid production. Senior Tickets start at $23.75. Newport Performing Arts Center, 777 W. 21st/Tuesday	Noon	Brown Bag Lunch/Social & "Paint Around"	Carol Summer's Studio
	1pm-3pm

Pack your lunch and get ready for a fun & creative experience meeting other YAG Members. Each Artist should bring a canvas or mixed media paper (minimum size: 14 x 14), your choice of paints, chalks, charcoal, collage, etc. materials and get ready for a different experience! If you need to work on a table or floor easel, please bring. Tables and other work surfaces will be available. "Artist stations" will be set up in a circular environment. You will start painting (any subject/style you choose) and after 10-15 minutes you will be guided to pass your painting to the person on your right. You'll add your creative style into that painting. (Make any changes or additions you want.) After the next 10-15 minutes, each Artist will again pass that painting to the next Artist until all Artists have received every painting. You will end up receiving your original painting and have an opportunity to add final touches or leave as it is. You will bring home an interesting painting with great memories! (Someone will coordinate the "Artists stations" and timing.) This is a FREE event.
